

Ties n Cuffs Delivering Your Smalls

Ties n Cuff's just got smaller – smalls that is, we're talking your socks and jocks.

Ties n Cuffs have just launched their brother site, once again catering for the time-poor, anti department store male (or female, we don't discriminate here)

Socks n Jocks has been a highly anticipated venture for Phil and Andrew, the boys behind Ties n Cuffs, who also launched their Perfume Cart site in mid 2006.

By jumping onto the Socks n Jocks site, you can buy all the boxers you'll ever need and save time for doing something you really enjoy, like watching the footy.

Perfume Cart offers a diverse range of scents for both men and women. With highly competitive prices and offering those hard-to-find scents, you won't be waiting for your next overseas trip to stock up on your favourite perfume.

Providing quality product, fast and efficiently is the focus of each site. If customers have a query and would like to speak to a... wait for it... human being, they can.

"We want to take the guess work out of internet shopping, it is a convenient medium but it can be a little scary if you can't trust the site you're buying from. You can call or email us at any time for assistance or advice." said Andrew Gideon.

Delivery time is within 24 to 48 hours, so what are you waiting for?
